TOWN BOARD MEETING

AUGUST 2, 2017

The Town hall will be open for elections this year as follows:

Primary Election – No Primaries are scheduled for the Town of Darien this year.

General Election – Tuesday, November 7, 2017, Polls are open from 6AM – 9PM.

HIGHWAY – everything is in good working order. There was a lot of rain this month which caused some drainage issues. Have been working on ditches, sluice pipes and got the pipe on Griswold in the day before the rain. We have been doing a lot of work with other towns, including Bennington and the County. Did some minor touch ups. Recently, the new mower showed up; they took the old one in for trade and the insurance is switched over.

ZEO – report read; will be starting to send out letters about the little pools with the rings that are illegal in NYS due to safety issues.

At 7:55pm, Councilman Fix arrived to the meeting.

ATTORNEY – has been supporting the Zoning efforts in the courts

ASSESSOR – notified we are at 100% equalization

TOWN CLERK – Town offices will be closed on Monday, September 4 for Labor Day

HISTORIAN – going to reach out to Patty and Dennis as liaison for Darien Day and received a box of yearbooks, will catalogue and store; there is a lot of good information in them

TREATMENT PLANT – numbers are good; there was a little bit of a washout that occurred from so much rain, will just keep watch on it. Had pump issues that needed a service call.

Councilwoman Krazmien announced she completed the Sewer audit and read the report
